

MISSION STATEMENT

PPFA exists for the continued improvement of our members and their industry.

Accordingly, the association advocates high professional standards, educated members and consumers, enhanced profitability and a unified industry.

CODE OF ETHICS

A member of the Professional Picture Framers Association shall:

- Maintain a dignity of manner and behavior in the presentation of services and in all other forms of professional conduct.
- Observe the highest standards of honesty in all transactions, avoiding the use of false, confusing, inaccurate or misleading terms, descriptions and claims.
- Produce a product of a quality equal or superior to the samples displayed.
- Recognize the responsibility to properly care for all art in his or her custody.
- Contribute to the advancement of the profession through support of industry standards, the education of fellow members and the public at large.
- Recognize the authority of PPFA in all matters relating to the interpretation of these standards.